Economist Sees Equality For Germany In The Western Union As Essential

Nanking, Apr. 21. (Reuter) — China's new Legialative was different for Germany says "General Sir Brian Robertson's speech at Dusseldorf on April 7th marked one more definite stage in May 1, within one week from the development of a joint Anglo-American—instead of a Western European policy towards Germany. E.R.P. is now law and General Robertson was able to link his demand was and General Robertson was able to link his demand that the Germans should recognise, the division of them country with the news that their coming state would not permitted for European economic cooperation and enjoy the benefits of membership of the western union.

Germany cannot be treated as just another example of the existing split between east and west since here the deviding line runs not along national frontiers but through the part of the content of the the existing split between east and west since here the deviding line runs not along national frontiers but through the heart of the country. Germans cannot be won by economic bribes alone. The increased flow of food and raw materials is indeed essential. In short a competition for the soul of Germany is now no longer avoidable and it is the soul that must be won. The Russians will always have the advantage of speed. The west has all the handicaps of its honesty.
